JOIN ARTISTS & ATHLETES FOR REPARATIONS

I am Nana Malaya Rucker, the Cultural Arts and Celebrity Ambassador for the Reparation Education Project (REP). REP is a non-profit organization that serves as a trusted expert resource on the issue of reparations to media, educators, non-profits, businesses, federal and city governments, and influencers, for People of African Descent in the USA, Caribbean and abroad.

For over 400 years Africans were forced to labor for free in the US and abroad. REPARATIONS IS AN ISSUE whose Time has come!

In 1983 Harry Belafonte and Arthur Ashe started a campaign called "Artists and Athletes against Apartheid." This was a campaign that created a lot of momentum for the anti-apartheid movement in South Africa and led to the release of Nelson Mandela from prison.

I'm a Veteran Performing Artist, Director, Choreographer, Dancer, Actress and Storyteller. Some of you know me as a "Celebrity Mom," mother of Lamman Rucker, Star Actor of Oprah Winfrey's Network "Greenleaf" and Tyler Perry's film, "Why Did I Get Married" and television series "Meet the Browns." Our family has a legacy of being artists, educators, and activists.

Now, a new National Campaign is being implemented called "ARTISTS AND ATHLETES FOR REPARATIONS" (AAR), bringing visibility to an issue long overdue.

Let's Continue the Legacy of Artist as Activist and Give this Issue the MOMENTUM it needs by endorsing the following statement:

I SUPPORT THE CONCEPT OF REPARATIONS FOR PEOPLE OF AFRICAN DESCENT
(*USA, CARIBBEAN & ABROAD)
